1. Should the use of the ISP facilities for Exchange Service be terminated for Customer or PG&E for any reason, or should the ISP or Customer facilities become, in PG&E's opinion, unsafe or unsuitable for service pursuant to good utility practice, PG&E will continue to provide service to Customer from a different location, if Customer wants to continue to receive service. In such circumstances:

- a. PG&E will relocate the point of service upon request, provided suitable rights of way are available, and Customer first pays to PG&E the cost of such relocation, as estimated by PG&E, per PG&E's applicable tariffs; and
- b. PG&E is hereby absolved of and from any and all liability to Customer for, and Customer shall indemnify PG&E, its officers, agents and employees against, any and all damage, whether to person or property or due to financial injury, including but not limited to financial injury from interruption to Customer's business operations, which Customer or any third party may suffer by reason of, or in any way connected with such discontinuance of service; and
- c. Customer shall hold harmless PG&E, its officers, agents, and employees, from and indemnify them against any liability, claim, or loss from damage to any property or injury to or death of any person or persons in any way arising from or connected with the service facilities owned by ISP or Customer, as the case may be, and used by Customer to receive service hereunder, and PG&E has no obligation with respect to the operation or maintenance thereof.

2. This agreement will not terminate if the G-ESISP Service Agreement is terminated.

3. This agreement at all times shall be subject to such modifications as the California Public Utilities Commission may direct from time to time in the exercise of its jurisdiction.
